|| General Prediction ||

Character

You have a certain amount of philosophy in your character but it lies dormant a good deal of the time. You are large-hearted and sincere, though a trifle blunt. You are somewhat proud and people who ponder to your vanity become your best friends. You have high ideals which cannot be realised. When they fail, you allow yourself to be considerably dejected. There is a streak of restlessness in you, which causes you to cast aside an ideal before it has had sufficient time to mature. Consequently, you do not attain the success in life, nor the happiness and comfort, that your qualities merit. You know how to express your opinions in public and you have a neat gift for being humorous. It follows that you are credited by your friends as being jolly good company. Certainly you are entertaining. Your friends by the way, have considerable influence on you and it is highly necessary that you should choose them wisely and deliberately. Your greatest failing is that you are versatile and that your energies are directed into too many channels. Concentrate on fewer branches of work and pleasure, and you will greatly benefit by the change.

Happiness and Fulfillment

You are idealistic and inspiring to others, for you have inherent spiritual faith. Extremely sensitive, you are well liked - you rarely hurt others' feeling. Your happiness comes from the realisation that the difficulties of life are the lessons that you have to learn to become a complete individual.

Life Style

You are concerned about how others will regard you intellectually and are motivated to direct your efforts toward education before any other areas.

Career

You are authoritative and stubborn in your business life. You must be the leader than the follower. Try to look at problems objectively, and do not make decisions just because you are obstinate, as this could be your biggest bottleneck to achieving job happiness and success.

Occupation

Your desire for benefiting mankind and alleviating suffering will find ample scope in the medical profession or in nursing (if you are a woman). In either of these, you would be able to live up to your ambitions and do really good and useful work in the world. Failing the possibility of entering these professions, there are still opportunities that will agree with your temperament. As a teacher, you could perform really excellent service. You would fulfill the duties of a manager or supervisor of a large staff with courage and kindness, and people would submit to your orders willingly, knowing that they could always count on you as a friend. In quite another field you may safely rely on earning a good living. It is in the literary and artistic expression, and these single you out for an author's life. You can become an excellent actor also whether for T.V. or for films. If you take up this kind of profession, it would not be surprising that you would spend your time and money in furthering some humanitarian work.

Health

You have a strong constitution, but are apt to overtax it with work and play. Everything you do, you do strenuously, so that the life you lead takes too much out of you. Be calmer in your actions, be more deliberate, take a few minutes longer over walking and eating in your meals. Never cut down the hours of sleep, and avoid working overtime as much as possible. Take as long holidays as you can and plan them to be restful. It is your heart that will be the first organ to trouble you should illness come. If it is overtaxed it will rebel against your method of life, but it will do so mildly on the first occasion. Take warning of the very first signs of trouble, for the next occasion will be more serious.

Hobbies

You have the bump of acquisition strongly developed. It follows that you like to collect things, it may be old china, postage stamps, old coins - anything. Moreover, you find it difficult to throw things away or to part with them. You always think that you may want these some day and thus, you are a born collector. Such other hobbies as you have are more of the indoor kind than the outdoor. You have the patience to make things, and if you have not the skill you could easily acquire it.

Love Matters

Generally, you are very careful in taking a partner. The horror of making a possible mistake seems to be magnified in your eyes and you are very cautious. As a consequence, you marry later than usual. But, once you make a choice, you become charming and devoted spouse.

Finance

The question of finance will be a very peculiar one for you. There will always be a likelihood of considerable uncertainty and fluctuation in money matters, but you will, at times make large sums of money by your inventive ideas. You will be inclined to live in a land of dreams and illusions and meet many disappointments. You should avoid all speculations and gambling of every kind. In money matters for you, the unexpected is more likely to happen than the expected. Original ideas and plans will be born in your mind not inclined to fit in with other people's views. You will make money by unusual methods, you could become an inventor or an unconventional professional. In many ways, in inventions or businesses connected with risk or chance, you will be lucky. You will have clever original ideas as to how things should be done but as you are not likely to get on easily with partners, you are liable to see many of your excellent plans come to nothing.
